

SANCTUARY

St. Alban's Episcopal Church

Vol. 5 No. 8 - August 2008

Elberton, Georgia

RECTOR'S MESSAGE

Grace and peace, brothers and sisters.

Baptisms are always beautiful. We celebrated together and appreciated the gift of a new Christian among us.

Denni +

Prayers & Sympathy:

Prayers for health and healing:

- Marcia Jenkins had a setback this month. Recovery is slow and prayers appreciated. Short visits are welcome.
- Betty Edmunds and her husband Richard appreciate our prayers.

Prayers for our service people in the Military: including Andrew, Michael, and others in our hearts.

Transitions:

Megan McNeill Casey, daughter of Frank & Amanda Casey, granddaughter of Carole Oblesby and sister of Lauren Elizabeth Casey was baptised during worship on Sunday, August 17th. Welcome Megan! Here with Arlene, Mom and Sister.

FIRST SUNDAY
WORSHIP @ 10 AM:
SEPTEMBER 7TH
AT ST. ALBAN'S

Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones; for, I tell you, in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven.
Matthew 18:10

Angels Among Us

Daughters of the King decided that we have angels at St. Alban's. Keep an eye out and let us know when you see one!

On Your Calendar

Annual Diocesan Council will meet in Decatur on November 14-15th. Suzanne and Sara will be our delegates again, with David and Marilyn as alternates.

Safehouse will hold their annual Walkathon on November 1st at 8 am on the Square in Elberton. Walk with Sara and David.

Lambeth Lines

In London, the bishops of the Anglican Communion prayed and studied together in conference. They also expressed commitment to the United Nations' Millennium Development Goals.

Here Bishop Neil and his wife Lynn join the march. Lynn's hat helped raise money for MDG in Honduras. See <http://www.episcopalatlanta.org/index.html>
